

PARENTING SKILLS 911: Child Behavior Management Workshop

Presented by—

Cele McCloskey, M.Ed., Early Head Start/Head Start of York County Disabilities Manager
Jean McCollum Ed.S. School Psychologist, Autism Consultation Team, Lincoln Intermediate Unit 12

- Parenting is a stressful yet rewarding job!
- Learn positive parenting skills for effective discipline.
- Discuss positive and negative child behavior
- Learn how to manage different types of behavior
- Improve your relationship with your child

Childcare provided

Light Refreshments Served

Thursday, October 26, 2017
10a.m. - 12p.m.
226 East College Avenue York, PA 17403
Community Progress Council Boardroom

For registration information contact Penny Sims at 717-793-0144

Note: This workshop meets TANF requirements. Bring your E&T activity log.

(Child care available. Transportation may be arranged upon request.)
Light refreshments will be served during the workshops.

TO REGISTER PLEASE FILL OUT THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION and return it to your teacher, FES or FDS by 10/23/17

Parenting 911: Child Behavior Management Workshop
Thursday, October 26 2017 10am-12pm
Community Progress Council, 226 East College Avenue, York, PA 17403

I would like to attend the October Parent Training:

Name: _____ Phone: _____ Child's Classroom/FDS/Program: _____

Yes, I need child care for children ages: _____